Dear Emily:

Congratulations on being named one of Orlando Business Journal's 2008 Outstanding Small Businesses. The work you do day in and day out helps our local communities in so many ways.

In honor of your recognition, we also wanted to send a certificate noting your accomplishments, many of which were detailed in the recent November 21 issue of the newspaper.

On behalf of Orlando Business Journal, I want to personally thank you for the services your company provides that make Central Florida a quality place in which to live, work and play.

Regards,

Cindy Barth,
